

Dear Sirs, The application of BellSouth is contrary to the interest of all Americans who do not own significant shares in Bell South and similiarly situated monopolies. The existing oversight and standards are far more fair to American consumers than the BellSouth proposed revisions. You know the technical and economic reasons for rejecting BellSouth's proposal. Please do represent all Americans.

Sincerely, Robert Nellessen